

Metropolitan Educational Theatre Network

Join the cast!

Come be a part of this nostalgic musical that is as American as apple pie on the Fourth of July!

Everyone who completes our training and educational workshops will perform in a full production onstage in a professional style theatre in September 2023. Experience live musicians, beautiful sets, lighting, costumes, and more!

No experience necessary!

Many roles available for young people of all ages. Grade K through college – and parents too!
